Grantor further grants and conveys to Grantee the following incidental rights:

(1)

- (1) The right of ingress and egress over and across Grantor's lands to and from the Easement Tract; and
- (2) The right to clear all trees, roots, brush and other obstructions that interfere with Grantee's use and enjoyment of the Easement Tract.

Grantor reserves the right to use and enjoy the Easement Tract so long as Grantor's use does not materially interfere with the rights granted in this Easement Agreement. Grantor will not erect any structure or plant trees or other vegetation within the Easement Tract and will not alter the surface or subsurface of the Easement Tract or the ground immediately adjacent to the Easement Tract by grading or otherwise excavating, without Grantee's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

If a relocation of the Facilities is required by any party for any reason, Grantee shall relocate the affected portion of the Facilities only upon receipt of an agreement, in writing, to reimburse Grantee for its costs and expenses incurred in connection with such relocation (including but not limited to relocation design). In the event of any relocation, whether or not for Grantor, Grantor shall provide an alternate location for the Facilities on Grantor's property reasonably acceptable to Grantee that is comparable to the original Easement Tract in terms of size, topography and soil conditions and is as close proximally as is reasonably practicable to the original Easement Tract at no cost to Grantee (the "New Easement Tract"). Once such relocation is completed, Grantor will provide Grantee with a new easement substantially identical to this Easement Agreement for the New Easement Tract which shall be recorded by Grantee, at Grantor's cost, in the real estate records.

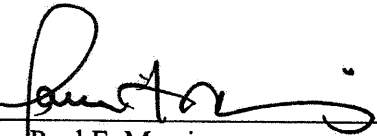

Grantor warrants that Grantor is the owner of the Easement Tract and will defend title to the Easement Tract against all claims. Grantee will have no responsibility for environmental contamination unless caused by Grantee.

The rights, conditions and provisions of this Easement Agreement will run with the land and will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Grantor and Grantee and their respective successors and assigns.
